Section 6. Expenditures. No committee shall incur expense on behalf of the Association except as authorized, nor shall any committee commit the Association by any declaration of policy or statement.

ARTICLE IX. DIVISIONS

Section 1. Purpose. The purpose of a division, an internal unit of the American Library Association, is to provide focused attention on library service and librarianship within and for a particular type of library or a particular type of library activity, and to cooperate in the promotion of general and joint enterprises within the Association and with other library groups. Each division shall represent a field of activity and responsibility clearly distinct from that of other divisions. A division shall have authority to act for the Association as a whole on any matter determined by the Council to be the responsibility of the division.

Section 2. Establishment. The Council may establish a division with a minimum of five-hundred (500) members of the Association who are interested in the same field of librarianship upon petition of such a group. Under exceptional circumstances, the Council may admit as divisions groups having fewer than five-hundred (500) members. If, in the opinion of the Council, the usefulness of a division has ceased, the Council may dissolve a division by a majority vote at two (2) consecutive Council meetings. A division that is going through the process of discontinuance is entitled to Council representation until it is officially dissolved.

Section 3. Governance and Limitations. Each division shall be governed by the bylaws and other applicable rules of the Association. To guide the officers and members in conducting the affairs of a division which are particular to itself, the division shall adopt bylaws, policies, or procedures, which shall not be in conflict with those of the Association. No division shall incur expenses on behalf of the Association except as authorized, nor shall it otherwise commit the Association by any declaration of policy or other statement.

Section 4. Organization. Each division shall be organized under a board of directors with decisions of the division. Each division may establish committees, sections, and subordinate units as may be required to execute the business of the division.

Section 5. Activities. A division may issue publications, hold meetings, retain or adopt a distinctive name, and, in general, carry-on activities along the lines of its interests. A division may be authorized to arrange a divisional conference under such conditions as the Executive Board may prescribe.

ARTICLE X. ROUND TABLES

Section 1. Purpose. The purpose of a round table, an internal unit of the American Library Association, is to provide an avenue for membership discussion, education, and response by library interest area or field of librarianship not represented within a division in order to implement and ehance the Association's goals and priorities.

Section 2. Establishment. The Council may authorize a round table of any group with a minimum of one-hundred fifty (150) members of the Association who are interested in a specific area of library interest or field of librarianship not within the scope of any division, upon petition of such group, which shall include a statement of purpose. Each round table shall maintain at least one hundred fifty (150) round table members, which is calculated at the end of the ALA fiscal year. Should a round table’s membership count fall below one hundred fifty (150), the Committee on Organization shall present that round table with options to convert into or merge with an existing unit of the Association, or be dissolved. Based on the affected round table’s determined action, the Committee on Organization shall bring the action to the Council for a vote. The Council may dissolve a round table by a majority vote at two (2) consecutive meetings. A round table that is entitled to a councilor and is going through the process of dissolution is entitled to Council representation until it is officially dissolved.

Section 3. Governance and Limitations. Each round table shall be governed by the bylaws and other applicable rules of the Association. To guide the officers and members in conducting the affairs of a round table which are particular to itself, the round table shall adopt rules, which shall not be in conflict with those of the Association. No round table shall incur expenses on behalf of the Association except as authorized nor shall it commit the Association by any declaration of policy or other statement. The members of each round table shall choose officers to serve until the close of the next annual conference by ballot.

ARTICLE XI. CHAPTERS

Section 1. Purpose. The purpose of a chapter is to provide focused attention on general library service and librarianship within a particular geographic area, to provide geographic representation to the Council, and to cooperate in the promotion of general and joint enterprises with the Association and other library groups.

No more than one (1) chapter of the American Library Association shall exist in any state, province, territory, or region. No state, provincial, or territorial association may be included in more than one (1) regional chapter. Any chapter may withdraw from chapter status, provided the issue has been submitted to a vote of the chapter membership and is favored by a majority of the members voting; and provided further that notice of withdrawal is sent to the executive director. A chapter shall be removed from recognition as a chapter by the Council if it becomes inactive or fails to comply with the provisions of this article.

Section 3. Governance and Limitations. Any legally constituted state, provincial, territorial, or regional library association may be recognized as a chapter. A chapter may admit members who are not members of the American Library Association.

Section 4. Organization. Each state, provincial, territorial, or regional chapter shall be the final authority within the American Library Association regarding programs and policies that concern only the area for which the chapter is responsible, provided these are not inconsistent with any programs and policies established by the Council.

ARTICLE XII. AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Qualifications. National and international organizations having purposes similar to those of the Association or to one or more of the Association’s subdivisions may request to become an affiliated organization of the Association. The Association or any subdivision thereof may request to become an affiliate of other national or international organizations having purposes similar to those of the Association or to one or more of the Association’s subdivisions. However, no subdivision of the Association may separately affiliate itself with an organization with which the Association is affiliated. Requests for affiliation are subject to approval by the Council. A division or round table may affiliate with itself groups interested in the same field of library service or librarianship. Such groups may admit nonmembers of the Association.

ARTICLE XIII. FINANCES

Section 1. Review and Approval. The annual budget, including the annual estimates of income and budget objectives, shall be submitted for Executive Board review and approval as part of the budget process. Except for projects supported by grants to the Association, annual estimates of income shall be based upon the unexpended balance remaining from the previous fiscal year plus anticipated revenues for the next budgeted year. In no case may expenditures be budgeted in excess of the estimates of income arrived at in this manner except for projects supported by grants to the Association.

Section 2. Auditing. An audit of all accounts shall be made annually by an external auditor and reported to the Executive Board.

Association’s fiscal status, and at other times as directed by the Executive Board.

appoint a Nominating Committee to nominate candidates for elective positions. The Nominating Committee shall nominate candidates from among the personal membership for the position of president-elect; for the position of treasurer; and for members at-large of the Council including any vacant member at-large positions. No member of the Executive Board shall serve on the Nominating Committee.
Section 2. Reporting. The Nominating Committee shall report its nominations at the Council meeting prior to the annual election. No person shall be nominated by the committee whose written consent has not been filed with the executive director of the Association.

The Nominating Committee shall also include on the ballot other nominations filed with the executive director by petition of any two-hundred (200) members of the Association for the position of president-elect and treasurer, and twenty-five (25) members of the Association for the position of councilor-at-large, provided written consent of these nominees have been filed with the executive director of the Association. For every election of the Association, the Election Committee shall establish a closing date for the membership list. Only members in good standing on that date shall receive a ballot and shall be entitled to vote. Every member of the Association eligible to vote shall receive a ballot.

Section 4. Qualification. For each office, the candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected and shall be reported to the Association by the Election Committee. In the case of a tie vote, the successful candidate shall be determined by lot conducted by the Election Committee. In the event that a candidate for election as a councilor-at-large withdraws from or is unable to continue candidacy in the period between the distribution of ballots and the reporting of election results, the votes for that candidate shall be ignored.

Section 5. Council Committee on Committees. There shall be a Council Committee on Committees made up of four (4) councilors elected for one-year terms by the Council. The president-elect shall be the fifth member of this committee and its chair. The four (4) elected members of the Council Committee on Committees shall be elected by ballot of the councilors Additional nominations for the Executive Board may be made by councilors from the floor. Upon election to the Executive Board, members shall continue to serve as councilors for the duration of their terms.

Section 6. Membership Referenda. By petition of one percent (1%) of the personal members as certified by the executive director, membership referenda shall be placed on the annual ballot for a vote except that no referenda ruled out of order shall be voted upon. A petition for a membership referendum must be filed with the executive director at least one hundred twenty (120) days before the annual conference.

ARTICLE XV. POLICIES

Section 1. Policies. Association policies, whether policies adopted by formal action of Council or other policies, shall be maintained in a manual available to all members. Policies may not conflict with a rule established in the bylaws.
Section 2. Policy Monitoring Committee. The Policy Monitoring Committee shall monitor the accurate documentation and codification of ALA policy and shall prepare additions to or changes in the ALA policy manual subject to approval by the Council.

ARTICLE XVI. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the Association may adopt.

The Council, on approving a proposed amendment, shall direct the executive director to place the amendment on the annual ballot, for ratification by the membership.
